ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TRADITIONAL OWNERS

Southern Grampians Shire Council acknowledges the Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples of this nation.

We acknowledge the Gunditjmarra, Tjap Wurrung and Bunganditj people, the traditional custodians of the lands where we live and work.

We pay our respects to ancestors and Elders, past and present.

Southern Grampians Shire Council is committed to honouring Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people's unique cultural and spiritual relationships to the land, waters and seas and their rich contribution to society.

1 HERITAGE STRATEGY

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1.1 WHY PREPARE A HERITAGE STRATEGY?

Understanding our heritage helps us to understand who we are and where we have come from, as individuals and as a community. Buildings, gardens, trees, objects, collections, memorials, ruins, archaeological and sacred sites all contribute to our sense of place and belonging.

Heritage assets which help shape the character and identity of a place can be easily lost or undermined if the value of the place is not understood, recorded and protected.

Southern Grampians Shire comprises a rich and wide-ranging cultural heritage which is reflected in its places and expressed and celebrated through traditions, artworks and stories.

The significance of the Shire's heritage is recognised on national, state and local registers and is the focus of a growing tourism sector.

Southern Grampians Shire Council is committed to supporting the conservation of its heritage. This strategy will guide future work towards this objective.

1.2 THE PURPOSE OF A HERITAGE STRATEGY

The purpose of a Heritage Strategy is to set out a whole-of-Council work plan to guide the ongoing documentation, preservation, management and promotion of heritage within the shire.

The preparation of this strategy has provided Council the opportunity to:

- consult with the community and local heritage advocates
- reflect on its achievements to date
- examine how current systems and practices can be improved
- identify opportunities to collaborate / and or partner with the community, Traditional Owner groups, stakeholders and neighbouring municipalities, and
- prioritise work to be done in the future.

The Heritage Strategy will assist Council to meet its obligations under the Planning and Environment Act 1987, Southern Grampians Planning Scheme and the Aboriginal Heritage Act 2006. It has been prepared in accordance with Heritage Victoria's 'Municipal Heritage Strategies: A guide for Councils toolkit' (2012).

1.3 A NOTE ON THE USE OF THE TERM 'CULTURAL HERITAGE'

The Australia ICOMOS Charter for the Conservation of Places of Cultural Significance, known as the Burra Charter<sup>1</sup> uses the term 'cultural heritage' to define places of heritage significance generally, however, the charter is associated most strongly with post-European settlement history.

Recently, the term 'cultural heritage' has come to be associated more closely with Aboriginal cultural heritage and the term 'historic heritage' is sometimes used for non-Indigenous heritage places and objects.

The Southern Grampians Shire Heritage Strategy uses the term cultural heritage to refer to all places of cultural heritage significance – both Indigenous and non-Indigenous.

2 BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

2.1 SOUTHERN GRAMPIANS SHIRE

Southern Grampians Shire Council (SGSC) was formed in 1994 via the amalgamation of the former Shires of Dundas, Mount Rouse, Wannon and the City of Hamilton. It covers an area of 6,655 square kilometres and supports a population of almost 16,000 people.

The natural landscape of the Shire has significant environmental and heritage value. The Grampians National Park (Gariwerd) is identified on the National Heritage List. Other features of renown include ancient volcanoes and lava flows, waterways and waterfalls and undulating pastoral land dotted with majestic River Red Gum (Eucalyptus camaldulensis).

The Shire encompasses the traditional lands of the Gunditjmara, Tjap Wurrung and Bunganditj people. Surviving archaeological sites, including rock paintings, stone arrangements, quarries, fish and eel traps, scarred trees and burial grounds, reveal an Aboriginal occupation dating back at least 40,000 years<sup>1</sup>.

The arrival of European settlers from the late 1830s resulted in the forced removal of Aboriginal people from their land. The fertile grasslands of the 'Western District' was laid claim by 'squatters' who established vast pastoral leaseholds for grazing stock.

Hamilton, the Shire's principal retail and service centre, was established on high ground above the Grange Burn from 1839. The township was set out in a grid layout in 1850, formally gazetted in May 1851, with the first land sales occurring soon after in October 1851<sup>2</sup>.

The urban growth of Hamilton is described as 'remarkable for the steadiness of its development', which is reflected in the architectural legacy of various economic and agricultural 'boom' periods, from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth century. Significant heritage places include its collection of churches, Victorian and Edwardian villas, Art Deco commercial buildings, interwar bungalows and William Guilfoyle designed Botanic Gardens<sup>3</sup>.

A network of smaller agricultural settlements emerged following the aggregation of larger landholdings via the closer settlement and (later) solider settlement schemes. The towns of Balmoral, Branxholme, Cavendish, Coleraine, Dunkeld, Glenthompson, Penshurst and Tarrington continue to perform important service and social functions for a dispersed rural population. They provide local hubs for education, health, commercial, religious and sporting activities.

The Municipal Strategic Statement for Southern Grampians Shire (at Clause 21.05-2) describes its cultural heritage legacy as comprising: 'an outstanding array of European and Aboriginal heritage features, including some of the State's most important places of cultural heritage significance'.

Clause 21.05-2 includes the following key objective:

The conservation, protection and maintenance of these places have social, community, and cultural significance to the Shire's towns and rural areas, and economic benefit for their attraction to tourists.

The following list provides an overview of achievements in the areas of heritage assessment, protection, management and promotion, which have been implemented by Council in partnership with the community, stakeholders and government agencies:

3.1.1 Studies and strategies

3.2 CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Southern Grampians Shire works actively to protect and promote cultural heritage, as demonstrated by the list of achievements previously outlined in section 3.1.

Reflecting on its achievements and looking to the future; Council has identified the following challenges and opportunities for improved heritage outcomes:

3.2.1 Southern Grampians Planning Scheme Review 2018

A recent review of the Southern Grampians Planning Scheme highlighted several measures for improving statutory management processes and supporting land owners, occupiers and custodians. These include:

- Review Heritage Overlay (HO) mapping to ensure appropriate curtilage for significant buildings identified in the HO are covered.
- Review Hamilton CBD precinct (HO346) to confirm extent of registration and contributory and non-contributory places, having regard to changes that have occurred since 1991.
- Develop Heritage Design Guidelines for heritage precinct and individual places to assist landowners and planners to design and assess changes.
- Develop guidelines to address design and access requirements to heritage buildings to meet Building Regulations.
- Investigate requirements for increased protection of Aboriginal cultural heritage sites in association with Aboriginal Victoria and Gunditj Mirring Registered Aboriginal Party.

3.2.2 Update, review and make available heritage material

The Hamilton Conservation Study (1991) and Southern Grampians Shire Heritage Study (2004) comprise valuable heritage material, including heritage citation reports and two extensive Thematic Environmental Histories.

These documents are not readily available on Council's web page and there is an opportunity to link place citation reports to Councils online mapping system – to provide targeted information about places on the Heritage Overlay.

Improved access to this material would greatly assist land owners, occupants and custodians in understanding heritage values and guide decision making.

The 'Heritage' section of Council's webpage can also be improved by providing links to the following material:

- Services & assistance: Heritage Advisory Service & Heritage Restoration Fund grant scheme
- Heritage planning resources: hyperlink to SGPS Heritage Overlay, Victorian Heritage Database, digitised heritage citation reports for individual and precinct HOs, guidelines
- Heritage material: digital copies of relevant heritage studies, Botanic Gardens plans, local history resources, technical conservation manuals (link to HV & National Trust website).

3.2.3 Management of Council Heritage Assets

Council owns and manages assets that are identified on the Heritage Overlay or may have local heritage significance. These include heritage buildings, monuments, bridges, kerbs and channelling, street trees and street furniture.

The allocation of funding for routine maintenance of Council owned heritage assets will enable the ongoing use and enjoyment of these places for and by the community.

The Heritage Advisor and Planning Officers are well placed to assist asset managers in managing heritage places and supporting positive conservation outcomes, through policy development, heritage advice and identifying funding opportunities.

Hamilton History Centre

3.2.4 Forming partnerships and encouraging community advocacy

The formation of a Heritage Advisory Committee comprising Council staff, representatives of local heritage groups / organisations and the community should be investigated. The committee can provide community and stakeholder input and advocacy regarding heritage matters. The role and responsibilities of a committee may include:

- Promote local cultural collections, historical societies, museums and interpretive centres through coordinated online and print material.
- Develop community heritage forum / symposium or local heritage awards in association with neighbouring municipalities, Performing Arts Centre, Hamilton Art Gallery, local historical societies and museums to support and celebrate local cultural achievements.
- Develop activities as part of national, state-wide or local events including NAIDOC Week, National Reconciliation Week, National Trust (Vic) Heritage Festival, commemorations and cultural festivals.

Ongoing engagement with the Gunditj Mirring Registered Aboriginal Party, and Traditional Owners is essential in the early planning phase of Council projects to ensure that Aboriginal cultural heritage places are respected and protected.

Council should continue to partner with Gunditj Mirring Registered Aboriginal Party to build greater community awareness about Aboriginal cultural heritage and history in the Shire and region, by:

- Developing cultural heritage trails and installing cultural heritage markers at significant sites
- Continue to facilitate cultural heritage activities for SGS Reconciliation Festival and National Heritage Week.
- Investigate requirements for increased protection of Aboriginal cultural heritage sites in Shire in association with Aboriginal Victoria and Gunditj Mirring Registered Aboriginal Party.
- Investigate the need for improved storage facilities and cataloguing of cultural artefacts, and possible exhibition opportunities with Traditional Owners.

4 ACTION PLAN

The strategy aims to achieve the following key objectives through the implementation of the Action Plan:

- Recognise the diverse cultural heritage of the Shire and ensure an inclusive approach to understanding the heritage values of its people, places, traditions and objects
- Identify, document, protect and manage the significant values places of cultural heritage value in the Shire
- Support and assist landowners and custodians in the management and maintenance of heritage places
- Promote and encourage an appreciation of the Shire's heritage, through celebrations, awards, events, publications and interpretive material

5 IMPLEMENTATION

MONITORING AND REVIEW

3.1 HERITAGE ACHIEVEMENTS

The Southern Grampians Shire Heritage Strategy is a whole-of-Council work plan that sets out a list of actions to increase knowledge, foster partnerships and support improved heritage systems and work practices.

The implementation of the strategy requires:

- Adoption of the Heritage Strategy by Council
- Insertion of strategy actions into unit and officer work plans over the next four years
- Allocation of resources to implement strategy actions (subject to future operation budgets)

The Heritage Strategy also requires monitoring to ensure that items set out in the Action Plan are implemented in accordance with the timeline. This can be recorded in the following way:

- Annual report to Council that provides a summary and review of actions undertaken to date
- Strategy and associated Action Plan reviewed every four years and 'progress / outcome' column of plan annotated to record action status
- Ongoing consultation with Council staff, stakeholders and community.
